RULES AND REGULATIONS- ALL ENTRIES PLEASE READ AND KEEP THIS SECTION FOR REFERENCE

1. APPLICATION DEADLINE: Parade Applications MUST be received at the festival office by May 12, 2018. Entries received after this date will be added to the back of the parade in the order received and may not be acknowledged by media.
2. DECORATION OF ENTRIES: All entries, including floats, tow vehicles, support vehicles, and commercial entries must be decorated to reflect the current theme of the Annapolis Valley Apple Blossom Festival. The theme in 2018 is "Honoured by Tradition, Inspired by Change".
3. Fees and insurance must accompany application, or application will be deemed incomplete and not added to parade lineup. Fees will not be refunded.
4. Entries must be entertaining to a family audience. No entry may depict anything derogatory, controversial or otherwise offensive, or distribute literature, pamphlets, leaflets, brochures, flyers or any other written or printed items without express permission of the AVABF.
5. The safety of spectators must be respected at all times. Adequate side clearance must be maintained constantly. No items may be thrown from vehicles on the parade route although walkers may, with prior permission of the parade marshal, hand items directly to the audience.
6. Proof of Public Liability Insurance is mandatory for horses & motor vehicles taking part in the festival. Coverage must be at least that required by law and must be provided by May 12, 2018 for the parade date of May 26, 2018. Your application is considered incomplete until such copy is in our files. Failure to complete your application will result in removal from the parade up to and including the Grand Street Parade day, regardless of past or current parade history.
7. Maximum dimensions (Float and Tow vehicle combined) must be no more than 75' length x 8 1/2' width x 13' high.
8. Any motorized or mechanical units should be well finished, clean and in safe running condition. All entries fuel tanks should be topped off just prior to the parade as no types of fuel storage containers are allowed on the parade route. All motorized vehicles must carry a fire extinguisher that is approved, charged, sealed and tagged, and ACCESSIBLE. It is the responsibility of the entrant to supply their own gas and drivers, and no meals are provided.
9. The Annapolis Valley Apple Blossom Festival will not be responsible for any injury or damages to entrants prior to, or during the parade.
10. Sponsorship identification on floats must be restricted to a panel, maximum 8' long by 1' wide (proportionate to the size of the float), unless otherwise agreed to by the parade committee. All entries should be visibly marked for recognition on all sides. Walking groups should carry a banner. Parade entry number must be clearly displayed on entry front. The Annapolis Valley Apple Blossom Festival parade committee will supply these numbers.
11. Entrants will be provided with detailed information with regard to line up instructions, maps, etc. prior to the parade.

12. Any entry that slows the progress of the parade may be withdrawn at any location along the parade route. There will be no premature exiting of the parade route, with the exception of an emergency. It is expected that ALL entries complete the parade route from start to finish. All entries are asked to maintain a constant speed and should follow the entry ahead at a distance of 25-50 feet. Do not worry about the space behind your entry.

If you are more than 50 feet behind the entry in front of you, you may not stop or pause for any reason, with the exception of an emergency, or by request from AVABF or emergency personnel.

13. At least one (1) support vehicle is strongly recommended for entries as detailed in item 8, page 2. Support vehicles will line up at the Cornwallis River Crossing to join up with the walkers at the Agricultural Centre. An adult MUST accompany children under 10 years of age. Please bring enough water to keep your walkers hydrated.

14. Commercial/For-Profit/Political entries will be allowed one (1) support vehicle/float. Additional vehicles will be subject to a $50.00 charge/vehicle.

15. Bands, Majorettes, Equestrian, Livestock and Walking entries form up at the Kentville Agricultural Centre between 10-11:00am on parade day. Trailers and vehicles may be parked in an area near the soccer field at the west end of Kentville. All motorized entries are responsible for the delivery of their float to the marshalling area on Cornwallis River Crossing in New Minas no later than 10:30am on parade day, and are responsible for the removal of floats from the dispersal area in west Kentville immediately after the parade. Parade starts at 1:00 pm sharp.

16. Any damages caused during travel to the Marshalling Area must be repaired prior to the Parade to the standards set by the Parade Committee. You are encouraged to have sufficient cover (tarps, etc.) in case of inclement weather.

17. Equestrian and Livestock units MUST provide their own clean-up personnel, with any necessary cleanup to be completed promptly. Any entry without a cleanup crew may be subject to additional fees.

18. All entrants are expected to be professional, neat, organized and well-mannered (no profanities) at all times while on parade. Any alcohol or illegal drug consumption or possession is forbidden before, during and after the parade festivities. Any individuals who do not comply will be dismissed from the parade and turned over to the proper authorities.

19. Entries will be judged by the Grand Street Parade Judging Committee. The criteria and opinions of the AVABF Invited judge members will be based on: originality, photogenic/visual appeal, use of people, material, animation and special effects. Awards are presented in various categories, a complete list of which is on this application (page 2). Float awards will be presented before the parade, in the line-up. All other awards will be issued after the parade and will be publicized in a press release and on our website.

20. We cannot guarantee your entry will be on television or that your description will be read in its entirety.

21. The Parade Marshal has complete authority over the parade. The Parade Committee may reject any application, or refuse entry on parade day, to any entry that does not meet AVABF criteria.

The Parade Marshal or Designate will inspect all entries as they arrive. If an entry fails to meet the standards established by the AVABF, and as outlined in this application, it will not be permitted to enter the parade. No fees will be refunded.
